CITADELS/VESTIGES/ ARCHITECTURE/MUSEUMS:

ORADEA CITADEL

In its current pentagon shape, with defense towers at the corners and a water moat, Oradea Citadel dates back from the 17th century and was built by Italian architects, in the Renaissance style. It is one of the best preserved citadels of this sort in Central Europe. Previously, until the 13th century, it played the role of a clay fortress with a wooden palisade, and until the 16th century it was a round citadel made of stone.

In the City of Oradea, visitors can admire buildings in a wide variety of architectural styles: baroque, secession, classic, eclectic, romantic and neo-Romanian. The city has over 70 buildings registered on the lists of the National Committee for Historical Monuments.

BATHORY CITADEL

Bathory Citadel and the locality of Şimleu are related through one of the many branches of the Bathory family, which gave several historic personalities in the 16th and 17th centuries. Among them, we could mention Stephen I Bathory of Şimleu who was a voivode of Transylvania and his son, Stephen II Bathory who was a prince of Transylvania and king of Poland. The castle and the citadel still preserve two corner towers, one defense tower and several walls.

CETATEA PIATRA ŞOIMULUI (FALCON STONE CITADEL), PEŞTIŞ

Falcon Stone Citadel, Peştiş, is located in the vicinity of Aleşd town. It was built in the 13th century, on a steep cliff, in the middle of the woods. At the beginning of the 18th century, following the rebellion of the Magyar nobility in Transylvania against the Habsburg occupation, the citadel was destroyed by the Austrian imperial troops. Today little remains from the old citadel but the visitors are attracted by the area, as it provides the opportunity for walks in the forest. The citadel is only accessible from the Eastern side, where the defense moat used to be.

Following the nationalization, the castle became a hotel and restaurant. Currently, it is used as a monastery. The wooden church in the castle's courtyard dates from the 18th century and was brought from Lugaşu de Jos.

NATURAL ATTRACTIONS WITHIN A 100 KM RANGE:

THE CAVE AND WATERFALL AT VADU CRIȘULUI, BIHOR

The cave located in Vadu Crișului, also known as the Zichy Cave is found deep into Pădurea Craiului Mountains, on the left bank of Crișul Repede river, 3 km away from Șuncuiuș and Vadu Crișului. At the cave outlet, the river crossing the cave forms Vadu Crișului waterfall. The cave is open for visitation.

IZVOARELE BARCĂULUI (BARCĂULUI SPRINGS) - TUSA RESERVE, SĂLAJ

Barcău river springs from the Metaliferi Mountains. The water collected on the karstic plateau of Ponor branches out into several small streams, which form small waterfalls.

Downstream it forms an impressive waterfall that is over 10 meters high. The spring area was declared a natural reserve, and is also known as Tusa-Barcău Reserve. The abundant spring bed collecting the water from the karstic plateau gathers large amounts of travertine deposits.

GRĂDINA ZMEILOR (GARDEN OF THE DRAGONS), SĂLAJ

Grădina Zmeilor, a natural reserve located in the vicinity of Gălgău Almaşului village, 10 km away from the town of Jibou, attracts visitors due to stone formations with unusual shapes, carved by winds, rains and snows, which became the chimerical characters in the local legends. One of these legends tells that dragons living in the area used to steal young girls from the village. A brave man succeeded to defeat the dragons which were then bewitched by a girl who turned them into stones.

THE WATER CAVE IN BULZ, BIHOR

The water cave in Bulz spreads over half a kilometer and is crossed by a water stream. At the exit, the water falls from a height of 3 meters, forming a cascade.

THE CAVE IN IGRIȚA, BIHOR

The cave is located approximately 5 km away from Aleșd, through Aștileu. From here, visitors have to walk one kilometer to reach the cave from Igrîța. The cave is known for the many cave bear fossils, an animal extinct 10,000 years ago.

FARTHER NATURAL ATTRACTIONS:

PEȘTERA URȘILOR (BEAR CAVE), BIHOR

Peștera Urșilor, discovered in 1975, is considered to be unique in Europe. It has three galleries open for visitation. The Gallery of Bones was thus named based on the many cave bear bones found here. Emil Racoviță Gallery, honoring the greatest Romanian speleologist, contains stalactites, stalagmites and columns of various shapes and sizes, stimulating the imagination of visitors. In the Gallery of Candles, the tourists can admire candle-shaped stalactites, and also curiously-shaped calcareous formations. The cave was inhabited by cave bears. The researchers found that 17,000 years ago, most likely following a strong earthquake, the only entrance to the cave was blocked and the bears left inside remained captive and starved to death.

CETĂȚILE PONORULUI (PONORULUI CITADELS), BIHOR

Cetățile Ponorului, located in the Padiș area of the Apuseni Mountains, are considered to be the most imposing karstic formations in Romania and were thus declared a natural monument. They consist in three large rock circles (dolines or sinkholes), laid in a forested depression. Here grow plants specific to the tundra biome with a unique phenomenon that can be observed: the valleys of the mountains are covered in coniferous trees, while the peaks are covered with deciduous trees.

PEȘTERA GHEȚARUL FOCUL VIU (LIVE FIRE GLACIER CAVE), BIHOR

Peștera Ghețarul Focul Viu is located in the Bihor Mountains, Apuseni Natural Park. The cave is accessible by a wooden ladder. The cave has two halls. The Great Hall hosts the 25,000 cubic meters glacier, the third in size in the country after the glaciers in Scărișoara and Bortig. The glacier lasts throughout the entire year. Behind the Great Hall, there are groups of stalagmites, touched by the sun light, thus causing colorful reflections, hence the name of the cave. Behind the stalagmites there is a gallery leading to the Small Hall, which goes down approximately 4 meters and has no natural light.
